What the Youth Coordinating Board Does

- Convene the jurisdictional partners & facilitate youth and community involvement into the process;
- Collaborate to establish vision, goals & strategies, & increase collective effectiveness;
- Champion policy issues, leadership and action to benefit young people;
- Communicate progress, issues to be addressed & outcome indicators; and
- Create new pilot programs, information resources & tools beyond the scope of the individual partners.

YCB Core Concepts

- Smart government
- Improve outcomes for Minneapolis Youth and Families
- Leverage public / private resources
- Decisions and actions we make everyday – and the decisions we don't make – impact our kids now and in the future
- This has a broad individual, economic and societal impact

Partnerships

- Joint Powers Agreement with City of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minneapolis Public Schools, and Minneapolis Park Board
- The Minneapolis Foundation, McKnight Foundation, and United Way are non-voting members of the Youth Coordinating Board
- Formed relationships with Minneapolis Achieve, Minneapolis Beacons (YMCA), and NAZ.
- Have worked with and received advise from both the National League of Cities and the Forum for Youth Investment.
