

The Metropolitan Council Work Group will study and recommend policies and procedures regarding the City of Minneapolis' involvement with the Metropolitan Council and the region, with focus on the following:

- Interaction of regional policies and programs with emerging federal regional policy;
- The role of the Met Council, in conjunction with Minneapolis and other cities, in fostering the region's economic vitality;
- Determining a process for communicating policy and city positions on regional and Met Council issues;
- Appointment recommendations to the new Governor;
- Optimal governance relationships on regional matters.
