

Community Planning & Economic Development

Media Advisory

Contact: Rose Lindsay, communications (W) 612.673.5015 (C) 612.2508661

For Immediate Release

City of Minneapolis and Partners to Host Community Meeting on Project to Relocate North Minneapolis WorkForce Center

WHAT: The City of Minneapolis, Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development, Sherman Associates, and Community Advisory Committee are hosting a community meeting at the Capri Theatre on Tuesday, April 29th to discuss the North Minneapolis WorkForce Center project proposed for 800 West Broadway Avenue. The meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m. with Minneapolis Mayor Betsy Hodges providing opening remarks. Minneapolis Council President Johnson and Council Member Blong Yang will also be in attendance. The meeting will provide an update on the community engagement process, the development project at 800 West Broadway, and an overview on the proposed services provided in this multi-tenant job training, educational services, and retail center.

WHEN: Tuesday, April 29th, 2014
6:00-8:00 p.m.

WHERE: Capri Theater
2027 West Broadway
Minneapolis, MN 55411

MORE: The community meeting is open to all, but attendees are being requested to RSVP in advance to help plan for room logistics. Attendees can either register online here or contact Erik Hansen at 612-673-5022 or erik.hansen@minneapolismn.gov.

The meeting is co-hosted by the City of Minneapolis, Minnesota Department of Employment and Economic Development, Sherman Associates, Northside Residents Redevelopment Council, CAPI, CLUES, Somali Success School, Lao

Assistance Center, Minneapolis Urban League, Nexus Community Partners,
Center for Neighborhood Organizing, Alliance for Metropolitan Stability, and Hawthorne Neighborhood Council.

#