Background/Analysis:

The City Attorney's Office applied for and received a grant from the Minneapolis Auto Club Foundation for Safety. The funds will go towards purchasing twelve impairment goggles to raise awareness about impaired driving during National Night Out community events and for use during CLEs and officer trainings. The City Attorney's Office will also be partnering with AAA Minneapolis to bring their drunk driving simulator to the National Night Out event.

Financial Review:

Additional appropriation required.

Grant funds should be increasing the appropriation for the City Attorney's Office in the Criminal Division's Grants-Other (01600-1400100) $915 and increase the revenue fund by (01600-1400100-372002) $915.
